From Jackson.

JACKSON, May 11.—One thousand of Grant's cavalry entered and burned Crystal Springs, on the New Orleans railroad, at 12 o'clock to-day.

The enemy is fortifying at Rocky and Willow Springs.

Asterhan's is at Cayuga, with one hundred and fifty cavalry, and six to seven regiments of infantry.

The enemy is reinforcing at Willow Springs and Rocky Springs from the river. Grant will probably advance from the east, and not direct, on Vicksburg.

A special dispatch to the Memphis Appeal, dated Saturday, May 10, says it is reported from the river that Price met and chastised the Federals at Francis river.

It is reported at Memphis that the Confederates have occupied Pittsburg, Pa.

The Memphis Bulletin of the 8th has a dispatch from Cincinnati, dated Dayton 8th, which says that all is comparatively quiet, but, after 10 o'clock yesterday, troops from Cincinnati and Columbus began pouring in. Thirty ringleaders were arrested, and every precaution to prevent the renewal of an attack taken.

A St. Louis dispatch of April 15, says that the most prominent of the secessionists are to be arrested, and that no favor is to be shown, but that they be sent South with their families.

A Nashville dispatch says that ex-Governor Brown is among the banished from that city.

From General Bragg.

TULLAHOMA, May 12.—General Bragg reviewed the Northern Alabama troops yesterday, and addressed them briefly in a highly complimentary and spirited speech. He spoke of the encouraging situation of affairs on the front, and ardently hoped that they might meet an attack from the enemy.

He leaves to-day to inspect the front, from which all is quiet.

From Vicksburg.

VICKSBURG, May 11.—Nothing of importance has transpired here to-day.

A large loaded with coal ran past the batteries last night. The enemy's fleet above is increasing.

From Chattanooga.

CHATTANOOGA, May 11.—All is quiet on the front, and no prospect of a battle.

CHATTANOOGA, May 12.—Nothing stirring from the front.

Changing their "Base 1"

TULLAHOMA, May 12.—Scouts from the front to-day, report the removal of the enemy's heavy baggage tents to the rear of Nashville.

Vallandigham's Arrest.

RICHMOND, May 11.—Northern dates to the 10th have come to hand.

The charges against Mr. Vallandigham are that on or about the 1st of May, he addressed a large meeting at Mount Vernon, Ohio, declaring the war unnecessary and cruel, and waged, not for the preservation of the Union, but for the purpose of crushing liberty and establishing despotism. He denounced General Burnside's Order No. 33, as a base usurpation of army authority, and the sooner the people are informed of such usurped power, and warned not to submit to such restrictions, the better.

Northern News.

CHATTANOOGA, May 11.—Andrew Johnson, [Yankee] has been commissioned Major-General, and will organize a force of five thousand Tennesseans and ten thousand negroes.

One regiment of negroes had been organized, after which Williamson's cavalry disbanded.

Rob. Johnston's son, Andy, has been promoted to a Brigadier.

Ex-Governor Neal S. Brown, of Tennessee, has come through the lines of Nashville and is now at Pulaski.

CHATTANOOGA, May 12.—Nashville dates of the 5th have been received here.

The Etna, from Liverpool, had arrived at New York.

The British authorities have detained the Confederate gunboat Alexandria at Liverpool.

The late proceedings of Admiral Wilkes, relative to the Peterhoff affair, has caused increased irritation.

The papers state that Napoleon is offended at the course of the Federals and would recall Mercier.

The rebel steamer Retribution captured at St. Domingo the steamer Bard, which was sunk in the river above Nashville by the Confederates. The passengers and crew were also captured.

Thos. E. Bremlatte has been nominated a candidate for Governor of Kentucky.

Five thousand persons, chiefly free negroes, have taken the oath at Nashville under an order recently published.

A raid by guerrillas was made within three miles of Nashville on the 30th ult., and the Federal pickets captured.

Some wood cutters had driven into the town three daughters of the Rev. C. D. Elliott, of Nashville, and they were arrested for carrying Southern letters, and sent North.

The Nashville Press says that Nashville must be union, or that the population must be decimated.

Fifteen prisoners from Dekalb, Smith and Willson counties had arrived at Nashville, and their transportation North furnished by the authorities.

TALLAHOMA, May 12.—The Daily Press, of the 9th, contains a telegram of the late Virginia battles.

The loss of the Federals in Sedgwick's command alone is five thousand men.

Its editorial says that Hooker, having changed his base, tells the story that he is defeated. Our first reports were base fabrications. The picture is frightful, and adds to the chronology of our sanguinary defeats in the east.

Reports say that the rebel loss is from ten to fifteen thousand.

General T. J. Jackson.

RICHMOND, May 11.—Business was suspended here to-day after ten o'clock, a. m. A special train, with the remains of General Jackson, arrived at half-past three. There was an immense concourse of people on Broad street and in the capitol square awaiting the arrival of the train.

There was a large military escort, and the body removed to the Governor's mansion, to be embalmed, where it will remain until morning, when it will be conveyed to Lexington.

It has been determined to retain General Jackson's body here until Wednesday. There will be a funeral procession to-morrow forenoon to escort the remains from the Governor's mansion to the capitol, where they will lie in state during the day.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY NORTHERN VA., May 11, 1863.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 61.

With deep grief the commanding General announces to the army the death of General Jackson. He expired on the 10th at 2 1/2 p. m. The daring, skill and energy of this great and good soldier, by the decree of a wise Providence, is now lost to us, but while we mourn his death, we feel that his spirit still lives, and will inspire the whole army with his indomitable courage and unshaken confidence, which gave us our hope and our strength. Let his name be the watchword to his corps, who have followed him to victory on many fields; let officers and soldiers emulate his invincible determination to do everything in defense of our beloved country.

[Signed] R. E. LEE, Gen.

RICHMOND, May 12.—A grand procession was formed here this forenoon to accompany the remains of General Jackson.

The street was thronged with ladies and gentlemen. The procession left the Governor's mansion and marched to slow music down Government street to Main, up Main to 2nd, thence to Grace and down Grace to the Capitol, where the body was deposited in the Hall of Congress of the Confederate States.

The President and Cabinet, Government officials, and other dignitaries, both civil and military, were in the procession. The military escort consisted of infantry, artillery and cavalry.

His body will be moved to-morrow to Lexington.

TO COTTON PLANTERS.

I HAVE BEEN APPOINTED BY THE SECRETARY OF THE Treasury, Chief Agent for the purchase of Cotton for the Confederate Government within the State of North Carolina, and will pay for the same in 7 per cent. Bonds or Cash.

Sub-Agents visiting the different parts of the State, buying in my name, will have written certificates of appointment.

By order of the "Secretary of the Treasury," all Cotton purchased by myself, or my Agents, on and after the 15th day of March, 1863, will be paid for in 7 per cent. Bonds or Cash, and not 8 per cent. Bonds as stated in a former advertisement. Up to that time, however, the 8 per cent. Bonds will be furnished as stated.

Patriotic citizens are now offered an opportunity to add to the Government by selling to it their Cotton rather than to private capitalists.
